Praise & Prayer:

October Praise & Prayer: What We Learn From Paul's Prayer

1. When we meet God, our prayer life begins.
2. When we love God, our prayer life deepens.
3. He expects a life that seeks His will, not ours.
4. God wants holiness over our comfort.
5. God desires a life lived in community.
6. God expects a life worthy of His calling.
7. God wants to produce the fruit of the Spirit in abundance.
8. Even in the midst of suffering, He wants us to sing of the joy of heaven.
9. He wants us to burn for the Gospel of Jesus Christ.
10. In life and in death, he urges you to live for the Gospel alone.

Anticipating a Deeper Prayer Life with Elijah

In the last two months we have learned what prayer is and with what attitude we should pray with Daniel and Paul. Even in the midst of the threat of death, Paul's deep prayer for Daniel, his three friends, and the early church in persecution of martyrdom, exalted God's glory in prayerful breakthroughs. It was a vivid picture of God answering prayer.

This month, we will see what prayer lessons we can learn from Elijah, the greatest prayer warrior in the Bible. You will see God who rules the natural world, God who controls man and woman's life and death, God who opens and answers the doors of heaven, and God who shows His power through weak people. We look forward to the burning flame of prayer in our church through intercessory prayer and praise time.
