1. Session 9 2. The Lawgiver's Tabernacle

* Bible Passage Exodus 25:1-9; 39:32-43; 40:34-38

* God Plans the Tabernacle

While Moses was alone with God, God showed him what was next on the divine agenda. God asked for a tabernacle—a sacred tent—to be constructed as the place where His presence would be manifested. This would make it possible for a holy God to dwell among His people.

Note the phrase, “so that I may dwell among them.” The Israelites understood—as we do—that God's presence is everywhere. Yet God chooses to manifest His presence, open to the senses, among human beings in specific times and places. The tabernacle in the wilderness would become just such a place.

1. Why do you think God was so specific about everything associated with the tabernacle?

* God Builds the Tabernacle

After the raw materials were gathered, two master craftsmen—Bezalel and Oholiab, as well as those working under them—set about constructing the tent and all the furnishings. The inspired biblical writer noted that their skills were God-given (Ex. 36:1). The Scriptures also provide exact details about each aspect of the construction.

This story of the tabernacle's construction is a great reminder that God creates people with various gifts to be used for His kingdom and for the good and joy of others. One doesn't necessarily need to go into full-time vocational ministry in order to make much of Christ with his or her life and glorify God.

2. What might be some tasks you are called to fulfill as “divine instruments” of God's will?
2. When Jesus died on the cross, the veil in the temple that protected people from being in direct contact with God was torn in two from top to bottom (Mark 15:38). What did that symbolize?

* God Dwells Within the Tabernacle

3. God had manifested His presence earlier to the Israelites through a “pillar of cloud.” A cloud was visible over the tent outside the Israelite camp where Moses and the Lord talked (Ex. 13:21; 33:7-11). But now something new and fantastic happened. God visibly showed up in the heart of the camp, above the tabernacle, as Exodus 40 indicates.
4. Twice in these verses (Ex. 40:34-35) “the glory of the Lord” is emphasized. The term translated “glory” carries ideas both of “weightiness” and “brightness.” With reference to the God of Israel, glory refers to the overwhelming manifestation of His presence.
5. It is a remarkable thing to consider that the God of this universe, the Creator of heaven and earth, desires to dwell among us. This is true not only before the fall occurred in Genesis 3, but even now in the midst of human sin and rebellion. God graciously accommodates us, redeemed sinners, making it possible for us to enter into His presence with full confidence. The apostle Paul took up the language associated with a temple to remind early Christians that they were indwelt by God's Spirit; therefore, they were God's temple and manifested His presence to others in the world. (See 1 Cor. 3:16; 6:19)
4. If God is always with us and we have access to Him, then why don't we continually “experience” Him?
5. In what ways do you see God's glory in your life?
