Session 10

Atonement Sacrifices

Bible Passage Leviticus 1:3-9; 2:1-3; 3:1-5

We need atonement to remove our guilt (The Burnt Offering, Lev. 1:3-9; Heb. 9:12).

- The burnt offering was for the removal of the people's guilt before God. Israelites could offer this offering at any time, but on one day of the year, atonement came into sharper focus—the Day of Atonement (“Yom Kippur” in Hebrew). This was the only time of the year when Israel's high priest was allowed to enter the most holy place of the tabernacle. All the animal sacrifices offered by the Israelites—were merely a shadow and a prefiguring of Christ's atoning death on the cross. Jesus offered His own blood on behalf of others, not needing the blood of another because He had no sin. He entered the heavenly “most holy place” rather than the earthly copy. He obtained “eternal redemption” rather than a temporary atonement. He removed our guilt forever through the bloody offering of Himself to God.
- Because of the once and for all sacrifice of Christ, we don't have to offer sacrifices to atone for ourselves. The offerings we make today aren't to appease our conscience or gain favor with God; instead, they're offerings made from gratitude and faith in response to His salvation.
 1. Why do you think the offerer was supposed to identify with the animal by laying his hand on the head?
 2. How often do you think about Christ's sacrifice for you and express your gratitude to God today? Explain the moments when you felt deep gratitude.

We need atonement to restore us to service (The Grain Offering, Lev. 2:1-3; John 12:24).

- The grain offering restored Israel to serve God and neighbor. The second offering God specified to Moses in Leviticus did not involve the death of an animal but rather grain from the earth, which was hand ground into “meal” or flour.
- Because people ate grain daily (in the form of flour baked into bread), the grain offering reminded the worshiper that their everyday life depended on God's provision. The grain offering was offered voluntarily.
 3. What is the difference between doing something from a sense of duty or a sense of delight?

We need atonement to reconcile us to God (The Peace Offering, Lev. 3:1-5; Eph. 2:13).

- The peace offering was for reconciliation between God and His people. Of all the sacrifices God specified in Leviticus, only the peace offering could be eaten by the offerer. The offerer could eat the cooked meat of this sacrifice, but only on the day of the sacrifice or the next day (Lev. 7:16-18). In other words, it was a kind of fellowship meal between God, the priests, and the offerer. The animal offered in sacrifice and then eaten symbolized that there was now a right relationship with God. With the peace offering God was inviting the worshiper to enjoy a friendship meal with Him.
 4. How have freedom from guilt through faith in Christ and reconciliation with God enabled you to serve others? How will you serve others in the coming days? Pray together for strong commitment to serving God and others.
