Volume 3 Session1

When Faith Fails

Bible Passage Numbers 13:1-2,26-33; 14:1-20

- 1) When faith fails, we start looking at our strength instead of God's (Num. 13:1-2,26-33).
  - The time had come for the Israelites to move into the land God had promised. Centuries earlier, the Lord said that through Abraham He would make a great people (the nation of Israel), send them into a great land (Canaan), and provide great blessings through them. Now, the Lord is ready to move them into that land. But here is where the obstacles arise, tempting Israel to look to their own strength instead of God's. As is often the case in the Old Testament, the Israelites faltered in their faith.
  - The Israelite were the people of promise, saved by God and commissioned to take the land He had for them. But, as they looked at some really large soldiers and made a poor assessment of themselves as "grasshoppers." Thinking it is impossible to possess the land, a failure of faith is not only losing faith in God's power, but losing a sense of themselves as His children.
    - Share of a time when you allowed circumstances to negatively affect or lose your sense of identity.
    - Why is it important to know that our identity as Christians can never be changed or altered because of what Christ has done for us? Explain your experience.
- 2) When faith fails, we forget God's past power and His future promise (Num. 14:1-12).
  - When the leaders lost their faith, the people of Israel faced a crisis. Once the majority of spies said there was no hope, the Israelites went from wondering, to mourning, to outright rebellion. In the heat of the moment, the people's rebellion escalated. The people contemplated the merits of having died as slaves in Egypt or having died in the desert wanderings. They were ready to stone Moses to death. To wish for death when you are on the edge of God's promise is the result of a faithless heart.
  - Their choice was based on a total lack of memory. All that God had done was somehow no longer in their minds. They neglected the power of God displayed in the past as well as the promise of God for their future.
    - In what types of circumstances do your fears tend to overshadow your faith? What do you turn to for strength in moments when your faith is faltering?
    - Share what is an instance of God's past faithfulness in your life. What is a future promise from God found in Scripture?
- 3) When faith fails, we need a faithful representative to plead for us (Num. 14:13-20).
  - Moses stood before God as the representative for his people and pleaded with God to show mercy. Likewise, because we have been fully represented before God by Jesus, we are able to represent God before the people of the world who do not know Him. Today, our calling is not to conquer the nations but to take the gospel to them.
    - How encouraging is it to you personally knowing that Jesus is interceding for you at this moment today?
