1. Online Worship Transition

Until further notice, all group worships will take place online.

- Sunday Worship: Same worship times (The 2E Worship (2nd Service English) will also be online).
- Online worship services also available for weekday early morning prayer and Wednesday evening service.

2. Online Offering

- It's safe and simple to give your offering online (go to kcpc.org for more info).
- You can also write a check (written out to KCPC) and mail it to the church address (15451 Lee Hwy, Centreville VA 20121).

3. Church Building Guide

For the health, safety, and social responsibility of the members, access to the church building is restricted to the pastors, staff, and a few members of the worship team. Please contact the office (703-815-1200) or your pastor if needed (closed on Mondays).

4. Senior Pastor's Daily Message

Every morning, the daily message of the senior pastor is sent out through the community pastors and SOON leaders. We hope it will help to unite the whole church in prayer. If you have not received the messages, please contact your community pastor or the office.

5. The Sent 365 - March and April Issue: Available for free by the entrance to the handicapped parking lot (Kiss & Ride).

6. Other Announcements

- SOON leader meetings and training ministries: will continue to meet online.
- Short-Term Missions: Short-term missions for this summer have been canceled. Please continue to share the good news of Jesus in your daily life.
- Election of Elders/Deacons: Delayed until further notice.
- Baptism/Confirmation Ceremony: Delayed until further notice.

Family Small group: LORD, Let Us Raise Our Banner

Psalm 60:1-12

Psalm 60 is a poem written by David during warfare. Through David, we might discover what Christians are to do to win this battle against the coronavirus. David prays before God for compassion over the current crisis, and he gives thanks and praise to God for victory.

1. What are the hardships the Israelites are experiencing now? (vv. 1-3). How should we feel about God and His allowance of our situation? How should we feel about ourselves as we reflect on God's allowance to the coronavirus? Why is God allowing hardship to the people he love?
2. David does not complain or hold a grudge against God. Instead, he prays. What is he praying about? (vv. 1-2). Share a time when you have experienced prayer in the midst of desperation.
3. In the midst of the battle and lack of resources, God tells the Israelites they will valiantly take the land (v. 6-7). This is because God already promised Abraham. How can believing in God's promise help us overcome the difficulties of reality? What am I doing to keep God's promise in mind?
4. God's military must lift the banner of God. It is a sign of who they belong to (v. 4). Am I aware of my identity as a soldier of God? Am I lifting the banner following the Lord? What should I do to let the world know of my identity as a soldier of Christ?

Gospel Project Questions

1. Why did the Israelites want a king? Why is asking for a king the same as rejecting God?
2. God sent an eternal King to reign over us. Who is that king? Do we believe this to be true and live accordingly?
